

THE BAJAN STATION LLC

UNIVERSITY PLACE, WA

Karen Stringer Caribbean Food Truck

- Born in Brooklyn, NY and grew up enjoying the cultures of those places, including the inspiring music and delicious foods.
- Enjoy travel, theater, art music, and food
- Coming from a big family, love getting together with them and enjoy storytelling, memories, and laughter
- Mother of a 27 yr old daughter and 24 yr old son and they are the greatest joy of my life

BUSINESS PROFILE

We are planning for the Bajan Station to be an energy efficient food truck that serves delightful dishes from the Caribbean and Central America to working people.

BUSINESS GOAL

Our main goal is to be known for authentic, home-cooked delights from the Caribbean and Central America, served quickly and with a sunny smile.

Key Needs & Challenges

- Finding a location for commercial kitchen
- Finding a home base
- A location to charge the electric vehicle
- Navigating the permits and requirements
- Filling out loan applications
- Gaining knowledge about business operations and managing finances

Community Impact

Our community will be different because some of the dishes we will offer aren't available anywhere else in the Pierce and King County metropolitan area.
